

The Archive-Library of the Foundation offers scholars an online reference service to contact from Monday to Friday. The librarian is available to provide information and short answers to the questions specifically received on the research topics pertaining to the figure and work of Gesualdo Bufalino: bio-bibliographical information, information on sources to consult, information on the Bufalino collection, suggestions on the use of online catalogue, useful instructions to carry out further research on the author.